Welcome

Carol A. Brey,
Quality of Life Director

This edition of ACCESS magazine reflects how the City of Las Cruces' Quality of Life Department is dedicated to three essential values: culture, community, and caring for each other – what we call cariño. These values guide our work every day, through our Las Cruces Public Libraries, Museums, Senior Programs, and Public Art – shaping how we collaborate, how we serve, and how we strengthen the connections that help our community to thrive.

Culture reminds us of who we are here in Las Cruces – our shared values, our diverse experiences, and the spirit that drives us forward. This quarter we highlight programs related to Día de los Muertos at the Las Cruces Public Libraries and Museums – remembering those who have gone on before us. There will also be a special celebration of the life of Jonathan Delgado – our Museum Curator who we lost recently – at the downtown Museums on Saturday afternoon, November 7.

We also celebrate the importance of our community, which reflects our belief that we are better together, that each voice matters, and that meaningful change happens when we support one another. We see this at our ten Quality of Life locations, through our service to all age groups from toddlers to seniors, and reflect upon this with the new exhibit at the Museum of Art, Declaration/Declaración, which opens in November.

From pre-K programs at our libraries and museums, to special teen programs, to a wide variety of dance and exercise programs at our Senior Centers, there is something for everyone packed into this issue of ACCESS!

About the Cover

Tower of the Fore Winds was created in 2016 by renowned artist Bob Diven. Designed to tie in with the nearby Red Hawk golf club, Bob liked the idea of a weather vane because he wanted something that was "alive." He also incorporated a few "easter eggs" that will surprise and reward the careful viewer. The sculpture is located at 3990 N. Engler Rd. at Red Hawk Golf Rd.

Land of the People: Shimba Tainin kau natheure wein - Tierra Sagrada - Ndende bì Ke'ya - Naf'ole atsihem - Nde benah - Ndee Bikáá'

September 6, 2025 - May 31, 2027

This dynamic exhibit tells the story of six Indigenous groups with historic roots and contemporary involvement in the Borderland region: Ysleta del Sur Pueblo, Pueblo of Tortugas, Mescalero Apache Tribe, Piro-Manso-Tiwa Indian Tribe, Chiricahua Apache Nation, and the Gila Apache. Through their own words and perspectives, each group presents information about their traditions and current lifeways.

Reflecting the multifaceted nature of this exhibit, a collaborative, introductory space explores principal themes shared by all six groups. A secondary space within the exhibit changes every 12 weeks, allowing each Indigenous group to go deeper into their own unique stories, traditions, and perspectives. With the collaborative nature of this exhibit, each group has included their interpretation of the term "Land of the People" within the title.

Dancing with Life: Mexican Masks

July 17 - October 17, 2026

Featuring 50 masks and five dance regalia, this exhibit explores the rich festival culture found in Michoacán, Mexico. Dancing with Life is a celebration of the artistry of mask makers, the festival dancers, and their communities. It honors mask making as a contemporary artistic expression with deep cultural roots.

Diablo Mask by Felipe de Jesús Horta Tera, 2021

Dancing with Life: Mexican Masks was curated by Dr. Pavel Shlossberg and organized by Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture, Spokane, WA. Its tour is organized by International Arts & Artists, Washington, DC.

4 Common Corners Presents: Cottonwood

September 4, 2026 - January 2, 2027

4 Common Corners is an invitational group of fiber artists drawn together by their shared sense of place, the four corners region of the southwest United States.

Their newest exhibition is comprised of unique quilts inspired from one of the most recognizable symbols of the vibrant riparian ecosystem: the cottonwood. This exhibit serves as a call to action to protect the biodiversity found in our unique local ecosystems while also reflecting on our deep and abiding connections to the environments and communities of the desert Southwest.

Unalienable

October 2, 2026 - February 6, 2027

Local multimedia artist Angel Cabrales's newest exhibition, Unalienable, draws inspiration from the first sentence from the second paragraph of the Declaration of Independence: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

The Borderlands can be seen as the nexus of dreams for many migrants, an Ellis Island within the Southwest. Through this exhibition, Cabrales explores the experiences of migrants pursuing the American Dream, highlighting their trials and tribulations, celebrated achievements, and the never-ending struggle needed to make these dreams attainable.

Land of the People - Chiricahua Apache Nation

November 7, 2026 - January 30, 2027

The fifth featured group in our twelve-week focused exhibit run is the Chiricahua Apache Nation, whose exhibit will be displayed from November 7, 2026 to January 30, 2027.

The Chiricahua Apache have deep historic ties to a vast area of the Southwest, including Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, and northern Mexico. Despite securing a treaty with the U.S. government in 1852, the Chiricahua Apache were displaced from their homelands through warfare, forced relocation, and boarding schools. But throughout this chaos, they maintained their ties to their families, culture, rituals and ceremonies – all of which trace their origins to White Painted Woman and her sacred contract with the Chiricahua Apache.

The Chiricahua Apache Nation aims to gather and reunite the descendants of their displaced ancestors and to secure rights that were articulated in the 1852 Treaty of Santa Fe.

We invite you to learn more about this local Indigenous group, including their heritage and Indigenous activism.

Declaration/Declaración

November 6, 2026 - March 6, 2027

Declaration/Declaración explores the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence through juried artworks from 29 New Mexico and El Paso, Texas artists. These artists offer a unique perspective on this noteworthy anniversary by virtue of the fact that this region did not become part of the United States until 1848. This provides them with a distinct experience which in turn influences their artistic expression.

For 250 years, Americans have considered the "certain unalienable Rights" of "Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness" promoted in the Declaration of Independence and how – or for some, if – those rights applied to them. The goal of Declaration/Declaración is to pose questions about the founding of the United States as a nation and how the original promises outlined in the Declaration of Independence have played out over time. The artworks in this exhibition are a powerful investigation and expression of the diversity, complexity, and evolving story of the American experiment with democracy.

Declaration/Declaración was curated by Jennifer McClung, Exhibit Curator.
