INTRODUCTION TO MRA

WHAT IS A METROPOLITAN REDEVELOPMENT AREA (MRA)?

A Metropolitan Redevelopment Area (MRA) is a designated area within a city or county where the local government has determined that public investment is necessary to encourage redevelopment, reinvestment, and economic revitalization.

Under New Mexico's Metropolitan Redevelopment Code, MRAs may be created in areas experiencing conditions such as disinvestment, underutilized or vacant properties, aging infrastructure, or other factors that hinder private investment. The purpose of an MRA is to promote economic development, improve infrastructure, support housing and businesses, and enhance quality of life, while leveraging both public and private investment.

Once an MRA is established, the local government adopts a Metropolitan Redevelopment Plan that outlines the vision, goals, and strategies for the area. All public investments and incentives within the MRA must be consistent with the adopted plan and approved through a public process.

MRAS AND NEW MEXICO'S ANTI-DONATION CLAUSE

New Mexico's Constitution includes an Anti-Donation Clause, which generally prevents governments from providing public resources to private entities without receiving a clear public benefit in return. Metropolitan Redevelopment Areas (MRAs) provide a legal way for cities to work with private partners, as long as the community clearly benefits.

MRAs allow this by ensuring that:

- Public investments serve a clear public purpose, such as eliminating blight, improving infrastructure, increasing housing options, or stimulating economic development.
- Any assistance to private entities is tied to specific redevelopment outcomes that benefit the public.
- The municipality receives commensurate value in return, such as public infrastructure, job creation, housing, or long-term economic benefit.
- All actions are taken pursuant to an adopted redevelopment plan, approved by the governing body following notice and public hearings.

Because MRAs are authorized by state statute and require documented public benefit, they provide a legally defensible pathway for public-private partnerships, development incentives, land acquisition, and infrastructure investment that would otherwise be restricted under the Anti-Donation Clause.

WHY MRAs MATTER

MRAS PROVIDE MUNICIPALITIES WITH:

- A structured, transparent tool for revitalizing targeted areas
- Legal authority to coordinate public and private investment
- A defensible mechanism for incentives and redevelopment activities
- A long-term framework for planning, funding, and implementation

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

In New Mexico, Tax Increment Financing (TIF) is a redevelopment tool authorized under the Metropolitan Redevelopment Code that allows a local government to reinvest a portion of new tax revenue generated within a designated Metropolitan Redevelopment Area (MRA) back into that same area to support redevelopment.

TIF may only be used in MRAs with an adopted redevelopment plan approved by the local governing body.

Businesses must verify their new Gross Receipts Tax (GRT) location code to ensure their tax filings are accurately attributed to the correct area within the City. The location code determines where GRT revenue is allocated, including whether a business falls within a Tax Increment Financing (TIF) district. Accurate location coding ensures that GRT growth is properly tracked and reinvested in designated TIF areas to support infrastructure, redevelopment, and economic development projects. Businesses can confirm their correct location code through the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department website or directly within their Taxpayer Access Point (TAP) portal when filing returns.

HOW TIF WORKS

- Does not increase taxes.
- Captures a portion of the natural growth in property tax and/or gross receipts tax (GRT) revenues above a certified base year.
- Base revenues are protected.
- City, County, State, and other taxing entities continue to receive all baseline revenues, plus at least 25% of new incremental growth.
- Up to 75% of the tax increment may be dedicated to the MRA redevelopment fund by resolution of the local governing body.
- State participation is not automatic.
- Dedication of the state portion of GRT requires approval from the New Mexico State Board of Finance.

DURATION

- TIF revenues may be collected for up to 20 years.
- After expiration, 100% of tax revenues revert to the City, County, and State.

USE OF TIF FUNDS

TIF REVENUES MAY BE USED FOR PROJECTS CONSISTENT WITH THE ADOPTED MRA PLAN, INCLUDING:

- Public-private redevelopment projects
- Infrastructure improvements
- Housing (including affordable and mixed-income)
- Land acquisition
- Rehabilitation and support for existing businesses
- Community and economic development services

ADMINISTRATION

- The MRA Code does not require a special board or commission to manage TIF funds.
- Local governments establish management, approval, and oversight procedures through ordinance or resolution.
- Tax baselines must be certified by the Treasurer (property tax) and the Taxation and Revenue Department (GRT) before revenues are distributed.
- Revenue generation is gradual and grows over time; jurisdictions may bond against future TIF revenues for larger projects.

EL PASEO AND SOUTH SOLANO MRA

The El Paseo and South Solano Metropolitan Redevelopment Area (MRA) is a designated corridor focused on reinvestment and revitalization along El Paseo Road, South Solano Drive, and surrounding properties in Las Cruces. The area includes long-standing businesses, aging commercial centers, auto-oriented development patterns, and infrastructure that no longer fully supports current market or mobility needs, creating opportunities for targeted redevelopment and reinvestment.

The El Paseo and South Solano area was designated as an MRA in March 2023 following completion of a redevelopment designation study by Groundworks. The El Paseo and South Solano Metropolitan Redevelopment Plan, prepared by Sites Southwest, was adopted by City Council in July 2025. The MRA boundaries extend from E. Lohman Avenue to the north, S. Main Street to the west, E. University Avenue to the south, and approximately one block east of S. Solano Drive.

WEST PICACHO AND MOTEL BOULEVARD MRA

The West Picacho and Motel Boulevard Metropolitan Redevelopment Area (MRA) was designated in March 2023 following completion of a redevelopment designation study by Groundworks. The West

Picacho and Motel Boulevard Metropolitan Redevelopment Plan, prepared by Stantec, was adopted by City Council in December 2025.

The MRA encompasses an area characterized by a mix of aging commercial properties, underutilized sites, and infrastructure challenges, along with opportunities for reinvestment and revitalization. The MRA boundaries extend from Tashiro Drive and McClure Road to the north, the Rio Grande River to the west, West Hadley Avenue to the south, and the railroad tracks to the east.

The plan provides a framework to guide coordinated public and private investment, support existing businesses, improve infrastructure and connectivity, and encourage redevelopment consistent with community goals.
